

HERE AND THERE.

Mr. P. Jumeau was up from Floral City Saturday.

Mrs. Clifford, of Eustis, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Robert Taylor.

Mr. Charles W. White, formerly of Citra, but now of New York City, spent Saturday in Ocala.

The many friends of Mr. Jesse C. Miller will be sorry to learn that he is seriously ill at the hospital.

Mr. A. B. Scriven, of Fairfield, was among the shoppers in Ocala Saturday and made the Ocala Banner a pleasant call.

Mr. and Mrs. George K. Robinson and daughter, Hope, returned Saturday afternoon from a short visit to relatives at Gainesville.

Mrs. Harvey Hutchinson, after a week's visit to Mrs. M. E. Robinson in this city, returned to her home at Gainesville Saturday.

Mr. T. A. O'Neill, of Savannah, representing a Boston shoe house, was in Ocala Saturday interviewing our merchants.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. McDonald, who have been living in Jacksonville for several years will leave shortly for Quincy, Florida, to reside.

The newspapers in Florida are now running along very similar lines. We remember never before to have seen anything like it.

Mr. Charlie Cress came up from Plant City to attend the funeral of his father, Mr. C. H. Cress, which took place at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Woodrow and daughter, Mrs. Berry Hiss and little girl and Miss Esther Weathers have gone to East Lake Weir to spend a few days camping.

Mr. J. J. Watson, Florida representative of the Jesse French Piano Company, is in the city looking after the interests of that company. He says business in the musical line is on the rise all over the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Taylor are enjoying a very pleasant visit from Mrs. Taylor's sister, Miss Edith Wilson and her two friends, Miss Kemp, of New Berlin, Fla., and Miss Puckett, of Nacoochee, Ga.

Mr. B. S. Quarterman, one of the successful tillers of Marion's soil of the Fairfield section, called at the Ocala Banner office Saturday and remembered the hungry editor by leaving a number of large rutabagas for his Sunday dinner.

Mr. Tom Harris, of Valdosta, spent Saturday morning in Ocala. He left on the noon train for Citra where he will make a short visit to his mother, Mrs. S. S. Harris, at the mansion before returning home.

The Ocala House barber shop now has rubber tired chairs according to George's statement. If there is a luxury on the market George immediately sets out to get it for the accommodation of his patrons. Call and see the chairs.

Dr. C. G. Thomas and party spent Saturday in their private car in this city. They visited Silver Springs during the day. Dr. Thomas is at the head of the hospital department of the Atlantic Coast Line railway.

Quite a number of the boys of the city gave an excellent minstrel performance Saturday afternoon in the yard of Mr. George Martin's residence. The tickets were sold for ten cents a piece and quite a number of children and some older people attended the show and pronounced it excellent. Before the show the boys paraded up South Third street and down Fort King avenue. Master Olof Zewadski, carrying a U. S. flag, headed the procession and he and his company attracted much attention.

Prof. Crosby, who will soon be in Florida from the United States department of agriculture, Washington, D. C., after the Stock Breeders Convention at Jacksonville has accepted an invitation to visit Marion county and inspect the beginning of the stock business here. He will visit Mr. Galt's fine farm at McIntosh and the Palmetto farm of Messrs. Z. C. Chambliss & Company, near this city.

SILVER SPRINGS

A LIGHTNING JINGLE.

Capt. Jack Crawford in St. Patrick's Day was driven to Silver Springs by Dr. W. C. Lindsay and a boat ride on the beautiful bosom of that stream thrilled him with ecstasy and when he returned to Ocala in just three quarters of an hour by the watch he dashed off the following "lightning jingles."—ED. OCALA BANNER.]

Oh bursting, bubbling giant spring,
Where artists rave and poets sing
Thou wonderful offspring-mother earth,
Still laboring, toiling in thy birth,
Begin when this old earth was young,
When savages thy praises sung,
And millions yet unborn will blaze,
With inspiration in thy praise,
Fire thou art truly fully born,
It may be on the judgment morn,
That thou wilt go where angels fell,
To quench the burning thirst in hell,
For thou art all that's needed there
To make Hades a land most fair,
And down in Arizona, too,
Ye gods! how they would welcome you,
And vander in New Mexico,
Where centipedes and cacti grow,
Where thou alone couldst irrigate
That entire torrid sunshine state,
Where lungless lingers rusticate,
But people here can't understand
"Unless the've seen our Rio Grande,
As dry as Hades and as hot."

What wondrous treasures you have got
In these majestic bubbling springs,
With orange groves and other things
With which the Lord is blessing you,
And yet you'll always find it true,
That people somehow fret and growl
And raise the dunc and kick and howl,
Because the Lord sends too much rain
Or too much sunshine, and again
They grumble if there's too much breeze,
And when He sent a killing freeze
The faint of heart gave up the ship,
And quitting let their chances slip,
Oh, cal! "which means Callahan,
Abbreviated, Irishman,
Is what ye are and this I say
Because of this St. Paddy's day."

O'Callahan it might have been,
In early days some wild spalpeen,
Who settled from the emerald green,
Gave you the name O'Callahan,
For ever since the world began
Sure Patrick was a pioneer
And Pat O'Callahan came here,
However, be that as it may,
Ocala you are called today,
And here is what I've got to say,
To think that you have such a prize
Right at your door—go advertise.
A funeral—say Ocala's dead,
Let enterprise come here instead
Of stolen bottles, lazy louts,
Else—send your advertising scouts
Around the world and while they sing
The praises of your Silver Spring
Proceed to organize and start
A health resort with mind and heart
Combining with your enterprise,
The faith and hope to analyze
The blessings God has sent Ocala,
Don't skin a flea to get the tallow,
Be broad and generous quick to see
The blessings to humanity
That utilized would give you fame,
And then proceed to change your name.
Put on a green and orange dress
Divorce miss-spent and wed success
Do this and you will find me back
Your rustic custler Capt. Jack.

Presbyterian Social.

A very pleasant event was the monthly Presbyterian social at the home of Mrs. D. E. McIver Monday afternoon.

There were quite a number present in spite of the fact that the afternoon was somewhat showery and all that went spent the time very delightfully.

During the afternoon Mrs. T. J. Johnson, Mrs. W. L. Hale and Mrs. Harry Lapham sang several solos, Mrs. McIver acting as accompanist.

In the dining room the visitors were seated at the table and were served to ice cream, cake and candy by Misses Mattie Williams, Johnnie Liddon, Sara Harris and Valeta Potter. Miss Betty McIver pinned bunches of pansies on each visitor as a souvenir of the afternoon.

Several dollars were made at the social, which will be added to the pipe organ fund.

Cough Settled on Her Lungs.

"My daughter had a terrible cough which settled on her lungs," says N. Jackson, of Danville, Ill. We tried a great many remedies without relief, until we gave her Foley's Honey and Tar which cured her. Refuse substitutes. Postoffice Drug Store. m

This train is the standard of perfection in passenger service.
For Pullman reservations and other information apply to ticket agent F. E. C. Ry., St. Augustine or A. C. L. office 138 Bay St., West, Jacksonville, Fla.

Speaking Saturday Night.

Owing to the lateness of the early morning train the speakers (except Mr. Sheats) decided to spend the night at Leesburg so did not reach Ocala in time to fill the forenoon appointment and the speaking did not take place until Saturday night.

Those who spoke were Messrs. Ellis, Thomas, Crawford and Sheats.

The speeches were all along appropriate lines; were well received and liberally applauded.

We are sorry that time and space forbid our commenting upon them more extensively.

The New Ice Factory.

The Ocala Ice and Packing Company belonging to Messrs. Meffert & Taylor began making their ice Monday afternoon.

The building is now complete and is modeled after the most approved methods, the plans and specifications having been furnished by a New York firm that make a specialty of buildings of this character. The machinery and everything connected with this new plant is entirely modern. Of course it is needless to say that it will be helpful to the growth of our city.

Colds are Dangerous.

How often you hear it remarked: "It's only a cold," and a few days later learn that the man is on his back with pneumonia. This is such common occurrence that a cold, however slight, should not be disregarded. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy counteracts any tendency towards pneumonia. It always cures and is pleasant to take. Sold by all druggists and medicine dealers. m

Funeral of Mr. Cress.

Mr. C. H. Cress, who died of paralysis Friday morning, was buried Saturday morning at the old cemetery. The following gentlemen acted as pall bearers: Maj. T. D. Lancaster, Capt. G. C. Stuart, Messrs. D. E. Whetstone, E. T. Williams, A. S. Gates, and S. L. Bitting.

Rev. L. B. Warren, of the Baptist church, conducted the funeral services.
Mr. Cress was a soldier in a Pennsylvania regiment during the Civil war and it will be noted that of his pall bearers five of them were Confederate Veterans and one a member of the G. A. R.

A Physician Writes.

"I am desirous of knowing if the profession can obtain Herbine in bulk for prescribing purposes? It has been of great use to me in treating cases of dyspepsia brought on by excesses or overwork. I have never known it to fail in restoring the organs affected, to their healthful activity. 50c. bottle at Anti-monopoly Drug Store and Tydings and Company. m

Golf Tournament.

An impromptu golf tournament for the ladies took place at the links Saturday afternoon. There were about eight ladies playing and Mrs. William Anderson made the best score, winning the first prize, a couple of miniature golf sticks. The second and third prizes were golf balls and were won by Miss Emily Stotesbury and Miss Minnie Gamsby.

Quite a number of people were on the links and after the contest tea and cake was served and all present spent a delightful afternoon.

Working Overtime.

Eight hour laws are ignored by tireless little workers—Dr. King's New Life Pills. Millions are always at work, night and day, curing indigestion, biliousness, constipation, sick headache and all stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Easy, pleasant, safe sure. Only 25c. at Anti-monopoly Drug Store and Tydings & Co. m

He Was Polite.

On Friday evening Mrs. Charles Cullen heard some one on the stairway at her home on Sanchez street, and on going to the hall door discovered a negro part way up the steps. He bowed very politely, tipped his hat and asked if Mrs. Moody was at home. Upon being told that she did not live there he bowed his way out the door and vanished in the dark. The officers are today looking for an over polite negro with a blue overall suit.

Raw or Inflamed Lungs.

Yield quickly to the wonderful curative and healing qualities of Foley's Honey and Tar. It prevents pneumonia and consumption from a hard cold settling on the lungs. Postoffice Drug Store. m

A Visit From the Candidates.

The Ocala Banner enjoyed a very pleasant visit Saturday afternoon from General Thomas, of Tampa, candidate for adjutant general; Hon. W. N. Sheats, of Tallahassee, candidate for superintendent of public instruction; Hon. Henry Clay Crawford, of Tallahassee, candidate for secretary of state, and Hon. William H. Ellis, candidate for attorney general. They are making an itinerary of the state and are extremely pleasant and affable gentlemen.

Mr. Rossie Yonge, jr., and Mr. Borger, of the Jacksonville Electrical Supply Company, spent Sunday in Ocala with Mr. Yonge's parents and went down to Crystal River Monday afternoon to install a telephone exchange at that place.

Mrs. D. A. Clark, of Martel, and her mother, Mrs. Kelly, of South Carolina, who is spending the winter with Mrs. Clark, were in Ocala Monday and attended the Presbyterian social at Mrs. McIver's in the afternoon.

The S. A. L. railroad restaurant is growing in popularity. Not only has the traveling public found out that it is a first class place to eat, but many Ocalians are "getting the habit" of going there.
